January 6, 2011 – Dean Newton is outstanding!

Dean Newton, principal of Mount Royal Collegiate, has been named one of Canada's outstanding principals by The Learning Partnership.

Mr. Newton receives the award in Toronto on February 8th. He joins 31 other principals from across the country at the National Academy of Canada's Outstanding Principals in February. He will participate in a five-day management course at the Joseph L. Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto. During the course, the award winning principals will learn strategies to help enhance public education at their school and in their community.

"I am very humbled by this award," said Dean Newton. "It would not have been possible without the incredible team of staff and students at Mount Royal Collegiate, our many partners, our parents and guardians and our community."

Dean Newton was chosen as Saskatchewan's distinguished principal of the year in November 2010.

He has been principal of Mount Royal Collegiate since 2005 and joined the Saskatoon Public Schools' family in 1991. We are very proud of Dean Newton and Mount Royal Collegiate!
