BACKGROUND

Academic excellence, character, engagement and well-being of students are at the heart of Saskatoon Public Schools' strategic plan. The plan highlights our vision of each student being known, valued and believed in. It emphasizes Saskatoon Public Schools' commitment to creating learning experiences that inspire all students to reach their potential and the importance of relationships, equity and accountability.

CURRENT STATUS

John Dolan School established and implemented a school-wide communication and literacy goal in alignment with the Saskatoon Public Schools Comprehensive Literacy Plan for the 2022-2023 school year.

Their communication goal is to embed and honour the Communication Bill of Rights in all areas of programming throughout the day; "Communication: All Day, Every Day, All the Time." Proficient use of communication systems is critical to providing daily literacy instruction.

John Dolan's literacy goal is to provide daily opportunities for students to engage in explicit and embedded literacy instruction as part of academic programming.

All staff have worked collectively to learn and implement research-based instructional strategies and interventions to develop students' communication skills as well as increase student engagement with daily emergent literacy instruction.

Tara Goodwin, speech language pathologist, Kyla McKay, vice principal, and Darlene Schultz, principal, will share a presentation with embedded video of students demonstrating their communication and literacy skills and parents/caregivers sharing the impact this school-wide goal has had at home.

Saskatoon School Division No. 13
310 21st Street E
SASKATOON SK S7K 1M7

Dear Board Chair Colleen MacPherson and Director Shane Skjerven,

Our Grade 5 class from École Lumsden Elementary School has gathered the support of Mr. Lyle Stewart, M.L.A. for Lumsden-Morse, Mary Culbertson, Treaty Commissioner of Saskatchewan, and the Honourable Don McMorris's office, to assist in initiating a provincial Treaties Recognition Week. We are reaching out because we felt it was important to communicate with you what we are trying to achieve and why. We ask for your support as we continue to advocate for a Treaties Recognition Week in Saskatchewan. The proposed week will take place annually following Victoria Day in May. We understand that the Numbered Treaties were signed with Queen Victoria and want to recognize that original and ongoing relationship with the Crown. We also want to encourage the people of Saskatchewan to take some time to better understand the treaties' promises and the relationships between all people of the province and the land we share because of the treaties. We know that many First Nations are aware that these relationships exist and, to this date, live in the presence of broken promises. We are pursuing this provincial-wide initiative to help bring awareness and educational opportunities to people of all ages. Moving forward, people must learn about the spirit and intent, the fundamentals that the treaties were established on, and how it connects us as treaty people.

Hello my name is Braylee and I want to share a few reasons on why I think Treaty Recognition Week is important. When we do this I think it will make a difference in bringing people closer together. Considering that we are doing this and trying to bring people closer together, I think that it will provide the opportunity for others to become better educated about treaties. When we succeed in this I think it will help resolve some racism in our province. That is why I think Treaty Recognition Week is important.

We have had Chief Ira McArthur of Pheasant Rump Nakota First Nation come to our class and talk about First Nation governance and treaties. We have also put down tobacco, so this letter is sent with good intentions in a traditional way. Dăyă cǎdē ūgókma žehá (Nakota) We wrote it with a good heart. We ask for your support as we continue to advocate for Treaties Recognition Week with other rightsholders and stakeholders. We will continue to do our best to build relationships with our neighbours in the province and work together to better understand and honour the treaties' spirit and intent.

At this point, we have already written and mailed letters to 75 First Nations Chiefs and Councils in Saskatchewan to ask for their support involving our Treaties Recognition Week initiative. This provided others with the opportunity to share their opinions and knowledge about treaties. Our intent in sending letters to school boards throughout the province is not only to ask for support but also to hold those accountable that are in power to make decisions involving the cultural relevancy and inclusivity of our education. As a school board, you can make decisions that could provide more resources and support for teachers and students involving Treaty Education in our schools. We are thankful for Prairie Valley School Division board member Verne Barber coming to talk about school boards' role in guiding our education and the processes involved. We also discussed how the school boards could support our initiative and Treaty Education. Ultimately, we believe it is important that we all work together moving forward to help implement the initiative helping to increase accessibility to Treaty Education within schools and communities.

The Office of the Treaty Commissioner has committed to providing content-themed days and putting together treaty-related resources for Treaties Recognition Week, May 21-27. Enclosed in our envelope is the Prairie Valley School Divisions' letter of endorsement to express their support for Treaties Recognition Week. The government has also committed to drafting a proclamation that, with consultation and advisory, will transition into a bill. Grade 5 is excited about the momentum it has gained since the initiative was introduced to others. Let's continue to work together and support one another as we move forward.

You can respond to us by emailing Mr. Justin Freitag at justin.freitag@pvsd.ca, by letter addressed to École Lumsden Elementary School or by phone at 1-306-731-3338. We welcome your intent to support the initiative and your questions, comments, and concerns about Treaties Recognition Week.

Thank you for taking the time to read our letter. We are looking forward to hearing back from you.

Sincerely,

Braylee

Mr. Justin Freitag

Re: Treaties Recognition Week Initiative

Dear Justin Freitag:

Thank you for your letter regarding your class initiative to advocate for a provincial Treaties Recognition Week.

It is great to see the students in your Grade 5 class at École Lumsden Elementary School be the driving force behind this important endeavour. Please share with your students our appreciation for the passion and leadership they are showing with this project.

The Prairie Valley School Division Board of Education believes in the principles of Truth and Reconciliation. We agree that a Treaties Recognition Week would be an excellent way to help ensure Saskatchewan people understand the significance of Treaties. It is important that we all strive to learn more about the history of Indigenous people in our province, and a Treaties Recognition Week is a great way to accomplish this.

You have our support as you pursue this initiative, and we welcome future updates about how it is progressing. Thank you,

Sincerely,

Janet Kotylak

BACKGROUND

Academic excellence, character, engagement, and well-being of students are at the heart of Saskatoon Public Schools' five-year strategic plan. The plan highlights our vision of each student being known, valued, and believed in. It emphasizes Saskatoon Public Schools' commitment to creating learning experiences that inspire all students to reach their potential and the importance of relationships, equity, and accountability.

The ministry requires semi-annual reporting to boards of education, as indicated in the Transportation Safety Reporting Guidelines (TSRG). It includes requirements related to compliance with transportation legislation, reporting of student transportation performance, risks to student safety, and tracking and resolving complaints.

CURRENT STATUS

The key risks to transportation as identified in the TSRG were reviewed with each bus company.

Attached is the accountability report for student transportation which will be presented by Chief Financial Officer Daniel Burke and Financial Analyst/Transportation Manager Sheila May.

RECOMMENDATION

Proposed Board Motion:

That the Board approve the Strategic Plan Accountability Report: Student Transportation, to be included as part of the director of education's 2022-2023 evaluation.

At Saskatoon Public Schools every student is Known • Valued • Believed In

We are committed to creating learning experiences that inspire all students to reach their potential.

Accountability Topic: Student Transportation Report

Date of Board Meeting: May 9, 2023

Strategic Priorities:

| <input type="checkbox"/> Character | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Financial Stewardship |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Engagement | <input type="checkbox"/> Internal Business Processes |

Commitments:

- ☐ Relationships (honouring diversity, welcoming and joyful spaces, and community partnerships)
- ☐ Equity (anti-racist/anti-oppressive practice, representative workforce, high expectations)
- ☒ Accountability (evidence-based practice, focus on Indigenous student success, ensure safe, caring, and accepting learning environments)

Key Measures:

See performance indicators in the Student Transportation Report as of March 31, 2023, and Key Risks to Safe Transportation.

Targets:

Provide safe on-time transportation for students while minimizing cost.

Key Initiatives Employed:

On-time transportation for each bus company is tracked with a performance log. A bus company that outperforms the other company by providing safe, on-time transportation receives additional bus routes. Based on performance, the Sylvia Fedoruk routes have been moved to Hertz from First Student, effective for Wednesday, May 3, 2023.

Cost efficiency of transportation is reviewed during the school year and changes are made to minimize transportation costs.

Key risks to safety are addressed semi-annually with each bus company, see attached “Key Risks to Safe Transportation”

Data:

See the attached “Student Transportation Report as of March 31, 2023” and “Key Risks to Safe Transportation”.

Future Initiatives:

Transportation at schools will continue to be reviewed for opportunities to double-loop, resulting in either lower costs by removing a route, or by adding capacity. This is addressed in the current budget process for implementation in the 2023-2024 school year.

Busing offered in elementary attendance areas is being reviewed, in particular new neighbourhoods without schools. A change in busing offered in Brighton has recently been implemented based on the updated Brighton attendance areas.

The division is continuing to move toward more technology, including apps for families to access bus route locations and adding GPS on all buses.

Risk Assessment:

The overall increase in enrolment has increased the number of students transported in the current school year. Combining this with challenges in driver retention/recruitment is resulting in fuller buses, particularly in the new areas of the city. Although not a current concern, it remains a risk factor for the school division.

Both First Student and Hertz have indicated they have sufficient drivers. Historically, the shortage of drivers is greater at the start of the school year and into the winter, with fewer challenges by May.

Continued upward pressure on costs is expected due to growing enrolment, additional costs for intensive supports transportation and price increases in contracts.

Summary Comments:

Transportation seeks to provide safe on-time, cost efficient transportation.

Notes:

*Cancellations are for Sept.1, 2022 to March 31, 2023

Bus route transportation is cancelled at -45c with wind-chill.

Capacity utilization is based on a maximum school bus load of 3 students/bench seat. Students in kindergarten and the early grades may ride at 3 students/bench seat.

Students in older grades and students needing more space are seated at 2 students/seat.

The capacity rating of buses at 3/bench seat overstates the space available for transporting students in older grades.

Students are transported from around the city to intensive support programs and the Cree Language and Culture Program.

Nature-based Learning in Saskatoon Public Schools

Background

Saskatoon Public Schools has a long history of engaging students in unique experiential programming. Providing prekindergarten to grade 5 nature-based learning strengthens and supports the continuum of experiential programming within the division. Nature-based programming is offered to students in prekindergarten to grade 5 at Buena Vista School and prekindergarten to grade 1 at Lawson Heights School. The goal of nature-based learning is to foster student engagement, holistic development, attainment of grade appropriate academic skills, environmental stewardship and to strengthen the school and community partnership. Nature-based learning focuses on experiences in, about, and for the outdoors. A nature-based learning continuum was developed to represent the range of educational practices represented in the programs including nature-focused inquiry, outdoor learning experiences, place-based education, climate change/ecological education and land-based education.

Figure 1 *Inspired by Canadian Commission for UNESCO's Land as Teacher: Understanding Land-based Education.

Results

The data from enrolment, attendance, early learning and parent perception measures all suggest that the nature-based programs at Buena Vista and Lawson Heights schools have had a promising impact on academic achievement, character, engagement and well-being.

Impact of Enrolment in Nature-based Learning Programs

The introduction of nature-based programming has had a positive impact on the overall enrolment at Buena Vista and Lawson Heights. In 2021, Buena Vista introduced prekindergarten to grade 1 programming and expanded to grade 5 programming in 2022. In 2022 Lawson Heights introduced prekindergarten to grade 1 programming.

Impact of Attendance in Nature-based Learning Programs

Nature-based programming has also had a positive impact on attendance. Based on the data, it appears that the attendance rates in the prekindergarten to grade 5 classrooms are at least as high as the division average, if not higher. This is a positive indication of student engagement, as students who are engaged in their learning are more likely to attend school regularly.

Impact on Student Social Emotional Development

Social emotional competency has been shown to be one of the greatest factors of future success in school and life. Research indicates that an outdoor learning and play environment advances and enriches all the domains relevant to the development, health, and well-being of young children. Partaking in outdoor learning environments also helps early learners advance physical fitness and gross motor development as well as build understanding and appreciation of the environment.

In Saskatoon Public Schools, the social emotional growth of the youngest learners is monitored using a rubric designed in alignment with the ministry's early learning domains. The social emotional rubric (SER) is completed for all eligible prekindergarten and kindergarten students in the fall, winter and spring. The rubric reflects the components of early learning development including how children perceive themselves, regulate their emotions and behaviour, understand social rules and expectations and how children form relationships with others (adapted from Essential Learning Experiences).

The social emotional rubric data for the nature-based programs have a higher percentage of students at or above the developmental milestones compared to the division average.

Early Years Evaluation (EYE)

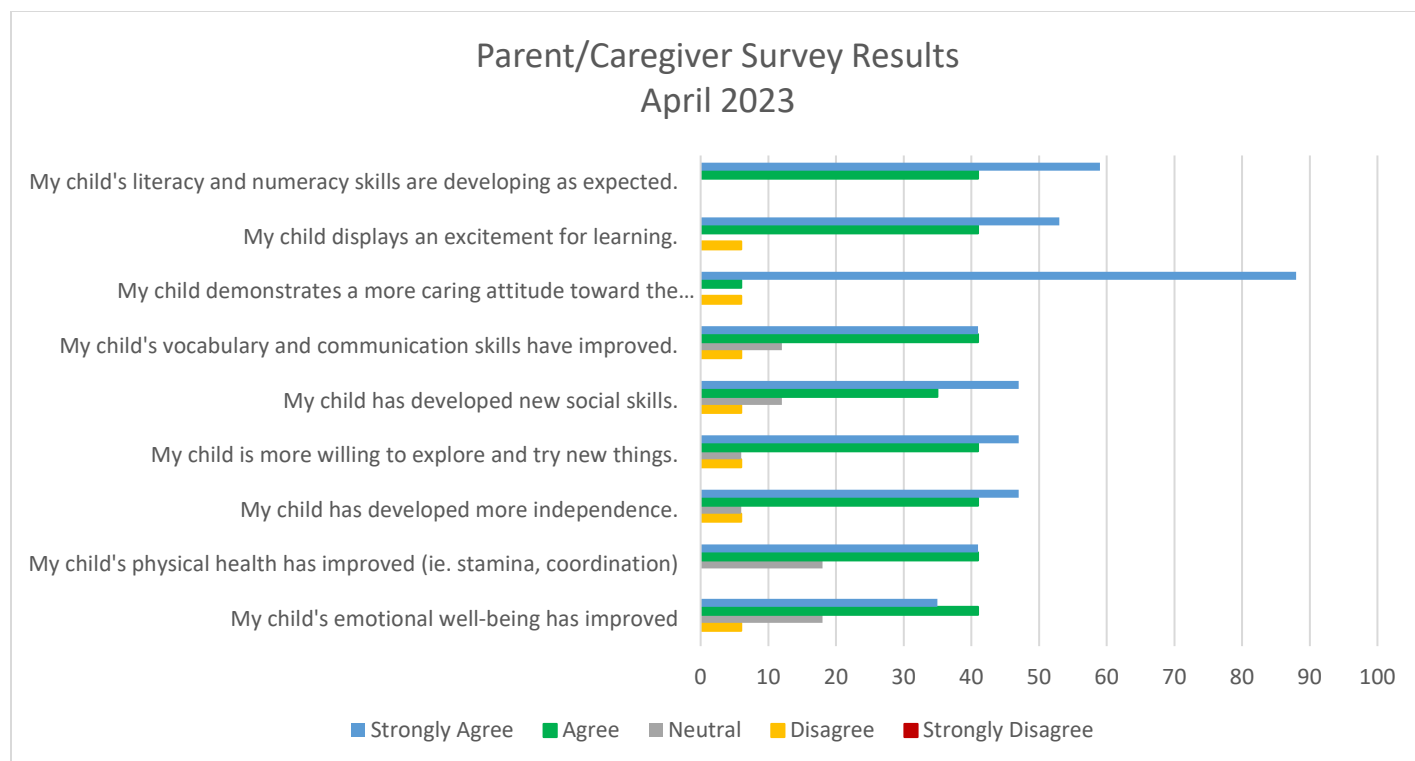

The ministry requires the completion of the Early Years Evaluation (EYE) using the direct assessment (EYE-DA) with pre-kindergarten 4-year-olds and the teacher assessment (EYE-TA) with kindergarten students. The EYE provides insights on student’s developmental growth across the following domains: awareness of self & environment, cognitive skills, social skills (direct assessment only), language & communication & physical development (fine & gross motor). The EYE-DA results indicate that the nature-based programs show a higher percentage of prekindergarten students who have demonstrated appropriate development in awareness of self & environment, cognitive skills and language & communication. The EYE-TA results indicate that nature-based programs for kindergarten students are within division expectations for percentage of students demonstrating appropriate development and those experiencing developmental challenges.

The impact of nature-based programming on literacy results such as alphabet attainment and oral reading fluency will be monitored in the future as literacy data sets are made available as the programs grow.

Parent/Caregiver Perception of Nature-based Learning

A survey was undertaken to assess parent perception regarding the impact of the program. The families of those Buena Vista students who attended nature-based learning for more than one year were contacted for their feedback. Results from the survey demonstrate that parents perceive nature-based programming as having a positive impact on their children across an array of skills and competencies. The survey results below show the percentage distribution of parent/caregiver responses across the likert scale.

When asked to identify what their child had enjoyed most about their nature-based experience, parents identified connecting with other students, the natural world, animals and outdoor learning adventures as their highlights. Parents offered the following statements when summarizing their child's experience in the nature-based program:

- We absolutely love this program! We have noticed that our child is way more curious and excited about learning new things since starting this program: she asks a lot more questions and takes time to contemplate answers...before then asking more questions to figure out the world around her. This program has instilled a love for learning and tackling new challenges. She is able to have fun with a new challenge and does not get as easily frustrated over "failures" as she used to before starting this program.
- It has been nothing but an exceptionally positive experience and we feel very grateful that our son is getting the opportunity to learn in the nature-based program. The teachers are fantastic and it is apparent that they really enjoy this learning style with the students. Our son is excelling in this environment and in addition to meeting all the academic milestones his friends in other schools are meeting, he is developing critical life skills (e.g. ability to adapt to changing situations, confidence in his ability to prepare for his day, an appreciation for the natural world and his role in it, etc.) that are benefiting him in his non-school life, as well. We have nothing but amazing things to say about this program and the teachers that deliver it.

The survey results indicate that parents of students who have been exposed to more than one year of nature-based programming perceive a positive impact on their child's academic, engagement, character and well-being competencies.

Current and Future Initiatives

Currently, both nature-based programs are using the Saskatoon Public Schools nature-based learning continuum to inform curriculum planning and program development. In addition to the nature-based continuum, the programs also reflect other division initiatives such as the comprehensive literacy plan and equity commitments to inform current and future plans. Both schools have initiated professional learning, when needed with the support of the coordinator of outdoor learning that include topics such as but not limited to topics such as achieving curriculum outcomes in outdoor settings, literacy in a nature-based early learning program, urban trekking, decolonizing place-based learning, environmental stewardship and sustainability. In addition to school-based professional learning, partnerships with organizations that support outdoor learning such as the Meewasin Valley Authority, Sustainability Education Policy Network (SEPN), and the Saskatchewan Environmental Society augment nature-based programming. These partnerships allow the division ease of access to quality resources, research, personnel, and outdoor environments that support experiential learning programs.

In 2023-2024, both schools will continue nature-based programming and will continue to explore and enact best practices in outdoor, place-based and land-based education. Additionally, the programs will continue to enhance their understanding of evidence-based literacy and inclusionary practices in outdoor settings.

Summary

Nature-based programming is thriving at Buena Vista and Lawson Heights schools. Clearly the nature-based prekindergarten and kindergarten nature-based programming supports the ministry's Early Learning Guide by providing "experiences in nature [that] build a connection, a relationship and sense of belonging" for early learners. Furthermore, the evidence suggests that students in the nature-based learning programs are developing skills that are in alignment with the Saskatchewan curriculum including the broad areas of learning (life-long learners, sense of self, community and place, engaged citizens), the cross-curricular competencies (develop thinking, identity and interdependence, literacies and social responsibility) and 21st century learning skills of collaboration, communication, and self-awareness.
